From the Editor

“Even when you are down”

Hardships are a part of life. There is no one in this world without targets to achieve or goals to reach or dependents to feed. Even a one year old has a target; if it does not start speaking by then it will be called dumb. Sometimes these timelines seems tiresome and make you feel weary; it's ok. Just remember even the greatest mind Albert Einstein had a Hitler. Focus on your goals these temporary problems will vanish. This issue of digest will help you on it.
